In the Gospel of this weekend, Jesus is on a journey “through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem.” A journey always implies a destination. Jerusalem is Jesus’ destination. The Evangelist Luke rarely tells us about the places through which Jesus passes. He only mentions the beginning of the journey in Lk 9:51, the middle of the journey in Lk 17:11 and of course, the end of the journey in Lk 18:35; 19:1. In this way, Luke describes the momentum and progression of Jesus’ journey, his clarity of focus, and his resolve and determination to get to the end.

What life lesson does Luke want to teach us? Most likely, he is suggesting to us that the objective of our life should be clear, and we should decidedly assume it like Jesus did. Nobody ever knows tomorrow. So as we set out on the journey of life, the places, situations, circumstances we go through are not always clear and definitive. However, what is certain is our ultimate objective, namely, Jerusalem our happy home! This is what Jesus considers most important and therefore commands us to “strive to enter through the narrow door.” The narrow character of the door of salvation calls for self-control and self-discipline on our part: “Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.”

The icing on the cake is God’s vision for the world as the prophet Isaiah envisions. God’s plan is to gather all nations and tongues together to see his glory. So, will only a few be saved? By no means! To Timothy, St. Paul wrote: “God desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth” (1Tim 2:4). It is for this reason that God sent Jesus Christ his only begotten Son, “that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life” (Jn. 3:16). If you truly believe, why not thank God for the gift of your personal Savior, Jesus Christ!

The Parish Website Committee held its first meeting on Tuesday, August 20. It was edifying to learn that Arthur Allore has already accomplished much, thus giving a significant shape to the website. We are thankful to him for the sacrifice of his time, knowledge and skills. The suggested domain name for the website is www.carthagedmund.org. Several suggestions were made. Some require a bit of researching, writing and editing. We still need about one month of hard and coordinated work before we can launch the website. We are looking at October 2019 as a tentative target date to take off. One of the suggestions made was to have a Mission statement. Please, find here one I have written:

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parishioners of St. Carthagh's and St. Edmund's parishes, have historical and cultural differences. Yet, we hold firmly that God is gracious, and we all come from Him. With grateful hearts for God's grace of one faith, one baptism, one hope and one Lord Jesus Christ, the Good News of God's unconditional love for each and all, we stand together, united, as the community of God's people in this part of the Archdiocese of Kingston. Conscious of our equality in God's eyes and His personal love for us; and imbued with the evangelical zeal of our patrons and Mary, the Mother of the Church, we, in turn, aim to reflect God's goodness in our community and in our dealings with others. Above all, guided by the Spirit and assisted by prayer and the Sacraments, we strive to deepen our personal relationship with Christ Jesus so as to effectively share him with others.

Suggestions for improvement are always welcome. The number to contact is 613-478-2000.

Duc In Altum 2019-20 Info Night

Calling all young adults in their 20's & 30's! We invite you to attend an info night about an awesome opportunity in our archdiocese for young adults: “Duc In Altum” (Latin for “Put Out Into the Deep”). This experience consists of an opening & closing retreat weekend away and 6 Saturday sessions once a month throughout the year. We invite you to journey with other Catholic young adults in faith and fun! Join us for our info night on Tuesday, September 17th at 7pm at the Diocesan Centre (390 Palace Road, Kingston). For more info contact Nadia Gundert at youth@romancatholic.kingston.on.ca or call 613-484-2446.

Tweed Community Dinner: All are welcome to join us on Thurs., Sept. 19, 5 – 6 pm at the White Building. This is a ‘pay what you can’ dinner, with this month’s receipts going to pay for next month’s dinner. September’s main course is pulled pork on a bun. Reserve your place by calling Lynda at 613-478-3181, leaving your name, phone #, and the number attending. Cut-off date for reservations is Sept. 12. These dinners are sponsored by the Tweed Area Churches and THAS.
